Foundation is joining the state agency as an event partner. Follow this link to learn more, virtually and in person, in Austin, February 1–3. Once again, the Texas Historical Commission's Real Places 2023 conference will take place both online and in person. The conference will be held in multiple locations across the state, with a main hub at the Austin Convention Center. Attendees can choose to participate in sessions that focus on various aspects of Texas history, including cultural heritage, archeology, and environmental conservation. The conference also offers networking opportunities for professionals in the field of historical preservation. For more information, visit the official conference website.

Texas/West Texas Magazine

The 2022 volume of Texas HERITAGE, the magazine of the Texas Historical Commission, is now available online. This issue features articles on topics such as archeology, cultural heritage, and environmental conservation. The magazine also includes updates on the commission's grants program and other initiatives aimed at preserving Texas history. Visit the official website to read the latest issue online.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR LEADS BRANIFF AIRWAYS FOUNDATION PROGRAM

THF Executive Director Leads Braniff Airways Foundation Program

On March 24, the THF Executive Director will present a program at the Braniff Airways Foundation and the Dallas Historical Society event. The program, sponsored by Braniff Airways Foundation, will feature a lecture on the history of Braniff Airways, a groundbreaking airline in the history of aviation. The event will be held at the Hotel Drover in Fort Worth. For more information, visit the official website.

RECOGNIZING HISTORIC FIGURES IN WESTERN LITERATURE

The Texas Historical Foundation (THF) has honored Enid Justin and the Nocona Boot Company with the THF Executive Director’s Book Receives Award Nomination

THF Executive Director’s Book Receives Award Nomination

The Lady of the Canyon, a novel written by Enid Justin and published in 1937, has been nominated for the Will Rogers Medallion Award. The novel tells the story of a young woman who sets out to prove herself as a rancher and homesteader in West Texas. THF Executive Director Carol Lipscomb, Ph.D., has written a book that chronicles the life and legacy of Enid Justin. The book is the first biography of Enid Justin and celebrates her exceptional contributions towards preserving the Texas history and inspiring its future. For more information, visit the official website.